

Mr. Sigmon is currently in his eleventh year as Band Director at North Henderson High School in Hendersonville, NC. After completing his studies at Louisiana State University he completed two and a half years at Salisbury High School, before beginning his position at North Henderson. Bands under his direction have earned Superior ratings in grades 3 through Masterworks, in Marching and Jazz Music Performance Adjudication, and at yearly National Music Festivals. The North Henderson Wind Ensemble has been selected to perform for the North Carolina Music Educators Association Conference twice(2013, 2017), and the Marching Knights have been finalists at Bands of America Regionals and other prestigious events. His students have consistently earned placements in County, District, and State honor bands, and Superior ratings at Solo and Ensemble Music Performance Adjudication.

He has served as a clinician and adjudicator in multiple States throughout the Eastern U.S., in honor band settings, University Honor Bands and Summer Camps, and with individual programs and school districts. Mr. Sigmon previously served as President of the Western North Carolina Bandmasters Association, as Western District Representative on the NCBA marching band committee, and as a director for the John Philip Sousa Foundation's International Honor Band.

Mr. Sigmon was selected as the Western North Carolina Award of Excellence Recipient in 2016, elected the 2011-2012 North Henderson High School Teacher of the Year. In addition he was chosen for School Band and Orchestra Magazine's '50 Directors Who Make a Difference' campaign, recognized by RBC Bank's Tribute to Teachers, selected for WLOS's Thanks to Teachers campaign, chosen by the Carolina Panthers and DSI as a recipient of their Carolinas Teacher of the Week program, and was given a 'Special Recognition' award by the Henderson County Education Foundation at their 2011 Hall of Fame Banquet, among others.

In addition to his teaching obligations, Mr. Sigmon has served as Music Minister at Fruitland Baptist Church since 2013, where he is blessed to be able to lead worship through music.

He makes his home in Hendersonville, NC where he and his wife Stefanie enjoy spending time with their children, William(8) and Emma(2).

